

Shout Out info/examples:

A Shout Out is a way for you (or grandparents, aunts, uncles, friends, etc) to congratulate your cast member in the playbill. It can say anything you want it to, up to roughly 50 words. Here are some examples:

“Joey, We are so proud of you! We love watching you work hard at something you love so much. It makes us happy seeing you pursue your dreams with joy! We love you, Mom & Dad”

“Macy, Congratulations on another great show! We are so excited for your role in the play. You are a blessing and bring joy and laughter all around you. Congrats on all your efforts and work. You are awesome and amazing! Love, Grandma & Grandpa”

ALSO, here are examples of how a cast bio can look:

Johnny Simpson is a junior at Horizon High, and is thrilled to participate in his first performance with Pinnacle Creative Arts Studio. He was most recently seen as “Tribe” in Godspell and “Cousin It” in The Addams Family. He has always loved theatre and performing. He would like to thank the Lord for giving him the gift and ability to act and sing; his family for supporting him in all he does; and the amazing cast and crew that he has been able to work with throughout this process.

Renee Jardin is 12 and attends Paradise Valley Christian Preparatory. She first performed in Annie as an orphan when she was 7 years old, then recently has enjoyed participating in performances with her “Performing Arts” class at school. Now she is so excited about doing her first show with PCA! “I want to be an actor while I’m young, and then become an engineer when I grow up”.
